Welcome

2018 is flying by with a very busy start. We have already seen an inventive win, a weekend away, a Cheer Dance competition and new classes within the Academy.

The year started with an inventive dance win for Kelly and Ellen, as they achieved their 26th prize winning dance, with the Charnwood Cha Cha Cha.

A lovely competition organised by the NCDTA.

Cheer Competition

January saw the first of our Cheer Dance UK competitions in Aycliffe. It was a busy day full of great dancing from all our dancers - both children and adults. We are already looking forward to the next competition in April.

Lets go Kellen, lets go!

February saw the start of some of our new $\stackrel{\frown}{\sim}$ classes. We have enjoyed adding strength and conditioning classes for both adults and children to our timetable. Adults have also ☆ been enjoying our new dance and cheer $\overset{\frown}{\sim}$ classes too! $\overset{\frown}{\sim}$
